GRAYS TUITION CENTRE – Online Tutoring

WEEK: 10

Week Beginning: 25/05/20

Subject: ENGLISH Year: 1

Lesson Objective:

- To understand the difference between present and past tense.
- To be able to write sentences in different tenses.

Keywords/ Concepts

- Present Tense
- Past Tense
- Verbs

Class Worksheets

- For class work:
  - Worksheet on writing past tense verbs
  - Worksheet on identifying the difference between past and present tense sentences

Homework Worksheets

- Worksheet on writing sentences in past tense

GRAYS TUITION CENTRE | 12 LONDON ROAD | GRAYS | ESSEX | RM17 5XY | Tel: 07582 50 40 30

Copyrighted © 2020

Writing Past Tense Verbs- Worksheet 1

To make most verbs past tense, add –ed to the ending.
call → called talk → talked

When a verb ends in a silent -e, drop the e and add –ed to form the past tense.
bake → baked hope → hoped

When a verb ends in a consonant and y, change the y to i and add –ed.
carry → carried copy → copied

Write the past tense form of each verb correctly in each box.

shout _____	work _____	solve _____
buzz _____	dance _____	climb _____
hurry _____	smell _____	love _____
plant _____	listen _____	smile _____
cook _____	cry _____	eat _____

Worksheet 2

Circle the action verb and write present or past

1. We love this song. present

2. He heard his dad on the phone. _____

3. He was wearing his coat. _____

4. The lamp is on the table. _____

5. The movie was scary. _____

6. Ella shared her toys. _____

7. I am eating a meal. _____

8. Nina went to the doctor. _____

9. She looks beautiful. _____

10. The kids are happy. _____

Past Tense- Homework

Most verbs form their past tense
by adding "-ed" to the end.
Finish - finished

Rewrite each sentence in the past tense.

1. They water their garden.

_____

2. Jackie finishes her homework.

_____

3. I am happy today.

_____

4. I eat pasta for dinner.

_____

5. We wash dad's car.

_____

6. They walk to school.

_____