

WEEK: 16

Week Beginning: 06/07/2020

Subject: ENGLISH

Year: 4

Lesson Objective:

- Understand the difference between non-fiction and fiction
- Understand key features of fiction and non-fiction.

Keywords/ Concepts

- Fiction
- Non-fiction

Class Worksheets

Worksheet on fiction texts

Homework Worksheets

Additional Notes

Fiction Worksheet

1. Fill in the blank words in the sentence from the words in the box.

Fiction is _____ writing that comes from the _____. This can include novels, _____, poetry and _____.

Writers use _____ and _____ language to tell the story.

_____ language includes _____ nouns, _____ and _____.

_____ language includes _____, _____ and _____ language.

2.

ADVERBS	SENSORY	SHORT STORIES	CREATIVE	SIMILES
METAPHORS	DESCRIPTIVE	IMAGINATION	PLAYS	DESCRIPTIVE
FIGURATIVE	PROPER	ADJECTIVES	FIGURATIVE

Write down two adjectives to describe the noun.

a) Carpet b) Tiger c) Maths Test d) Cardiff e) Road f) Woman

3. Write down one adverb to describe the verb.

a) Walked b) Talked c) Ate d) Thought e) Slept f) Painted

4. Read the adjectives and think of a noun that it could be describing.

a) Tough and hard b) Sweet and fluffy c) Strict and scary d) Hot and busy

5. Write down whether you think the phrases are an example of a simile or a metaphor.

a) Don ate his salad like a vacuum cleaner.

b) Grandad's sneeze was as explosive as fireworks.

c) The sun was a furnace.

d) John slept like a log.

6. Write down a sentence using sensory language for each of the five senses. Remember that sensory language points the listener to their sense. The first answer has been done for you.

Touch Abda reached out and felt the cat's silky and glossy fur between his fingers.

a) Taste b) Sight c) Hear d) Smell

---

---